SWEET BRIAR HISTORICAL SKETCH

Sweet Briar College was founded in the first year of this century by Indiana Fletcher Williams in memory of her only daughter, Daisy, who died in 1884 at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Elijah Fletcher, who came to Virginia from Ludlow, Vermont, in the early years of the nineteenth century and taught school in Amherst County. Later he moved to Lynchburg where he owned and published a newspaper, became a civic leader; and amassed large holdings of land as well as a considerable fortune.

At the time of Mrs. Williams' death in 1900, her estate consisted of more than eight thousand acres of land, including the Sweet Briar plantation, and over half a million dollars. Under the terms of her will, the Trustees were directed to incorporate an educational foundation in the state of Virginia, to establish it as a perpetual memorial to her daughter, and to turn over to it all property left to them in trust.

It was Mrs. Williams' desire, according to the following excerpt from her will, that "It shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall in the judgment of the Directors best fit them to be useful members of society."

The first Board of Directors determined that the college should be free from denominational control and that it should maintain the highest academic standards, uniting classical and modern ideals of education.

Sweet Briar College opened formally in September, 1906, with fifty-one students, including fifteen day students. Its A.B. degree, granted for the first time in 1910, was soon accepted for graduate work in leading universities of the country.

By 1921, Sweet Briar held membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of University Women, and the American Council on Education, and was approved by the Association of American Universities. Sweet Briar is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board, is a contributing member of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens and is affiliated with the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome. Sweet Briar College offers courses leading to teacher certification in the State of Virginia and 29 other states at both the elementary and secondary level. The music department is approved by the National Association of Schools of Music. Its chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is the Theta of Virginia, authorized in 1949.

In May, 1927, a Board of Overseers was established. It consists of the seven Directors and additional members elected by the Directors for four-year terms. The active oversight of the college is in the hands of this larger board whose decisions are submitted to the Board of Directors for ratification. Alumnae representation on the Board of Overseers was instituted in 1934. Through a policy adopted in 1973, each graduating class now elects one of its members to serve a special two-year term on the Board of Overseers.

Sweet Briar's first five presidents were women. Dr. Mary K. Benedict held the office from the opening in 1906 until 1916. Dr. Emilie Watts McVea served from 1916 to 1925, Dr. Meta Glass from 1925 to 1946, Dr. Martha B. Lucas from 1946 to 1950, and Dr. Anne Gary Pannell from 1950 to 1971. Dr. Harold B. Whiteman, Jr., began his administration as sixth president of the college in 1971.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Petition (October 17, 1906)

The students of Sweet Briar College, believing that there is dignity and honor in student government, desire individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic.

We, therefore, petition the President and Faculty for legislative and executive control in certain matters. We ask:

- I. Right to control quiet and order in all places about the buildings and campus that are not under the immediate control of a member of the Faculty.
- II. Permission, with the advice and approval of the Faculty, to extend our power as occasion arises and we prove worthy to be vested with greater power and authority.
- III. Permission to make such additions to the above as we may feel are necessary, with the consent and approval of the President and Faculty.

The Reply of the Faculty (October 20, 1906)

The Faculty of Sweet Briar College endorses most cordially the desire of the student body to assume responsibility for the conduct of individual students in non-academic matters. Therefore, the Faculty accords permission to frame a constitution embodying laws regulating the points specified in the petition—said constitution to be submitted to the Faculty for endorsement.

Constitution of the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College

Introduction

The charter of Sweet Briar College grants to the Board of Directors "full and complete management and control" of the College and its affairs. Subject to delegation of this authority by the Board, responsibility for the governance of the College is shared by the Administration, the Faculty, and the students.

1. The Administration has the primary responsibility for the physical security, health and welfare of the College; for the maintenance, improvement and preservation of all facilities; for the financial stability of the College and for its external relations with governmental agencies, other institutions, members of the wider Sweet Briar community, and the public at large.
2. The Faculty, through its officers and committees, including students whenever appropriate, and its established procedures has responsibility for all academic programs, including degree requirements, the awarding of academic honors, the grading system, and the course offerings.

 - b. Residential hall activities (except those matters deemed by the President to affect the health and safety of the community or the property of the College).

4. As the chief executive of the College, the President has the responsibility of implementing all matters properly referred to him by the other decision-making groups of the College. In matters of conflict, the President's judgment shall prevail, subject only to the superior authority of the Board of Directors, to whom appeal may be made.

- D. The duties of the student members of the Judicial Committee shall be to interpret the Honor System and facilitate its workings in every way possible.
- E. Each year the Judicial Committee shall adopt its own procedural methods and choose its own officers from among its members with the following exceptions:

 2. The Vice-Chairwoman and the Secretary shall be students.
 3. All judicial matters shall be decided by secret ballot.

 - b. From the rising junior class, the Secretary and Treasurer of the Association, and from the rising Sophomore, Junior or Senior Class, the Chairwoman of the Orientation Committee.
 - c. From the rising junior or senior classes, the President of the Recreational Association.
 2. Each class shall elect its Judicial Committee representatives as follows:
 - a. From the rising senior class, one.
 - b. From the rising junior class, two.
 - c. From the rising sophomore class, two.
 3. Additional elections shall be:
 - a. Seven additional house presidents shall be elected from the rising sophomore, junior, and senior classes.
 - b. Major representatives shall be elected for the Curriculum Committee from the rising junior or senior classes.
 - c. Chairwomen of Social Committee Subcommittees from each class.
- B. Guidelines for Elections and Nominations
1. To be a candidate for an elected office, a student must sign her name on a ballot at a time and place designated by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association. Those students who are away in their junior year may either nominate themselves or be nominated by resident students. Resident students may also nominate other on-campus students with the permission of the student and / or students involved.

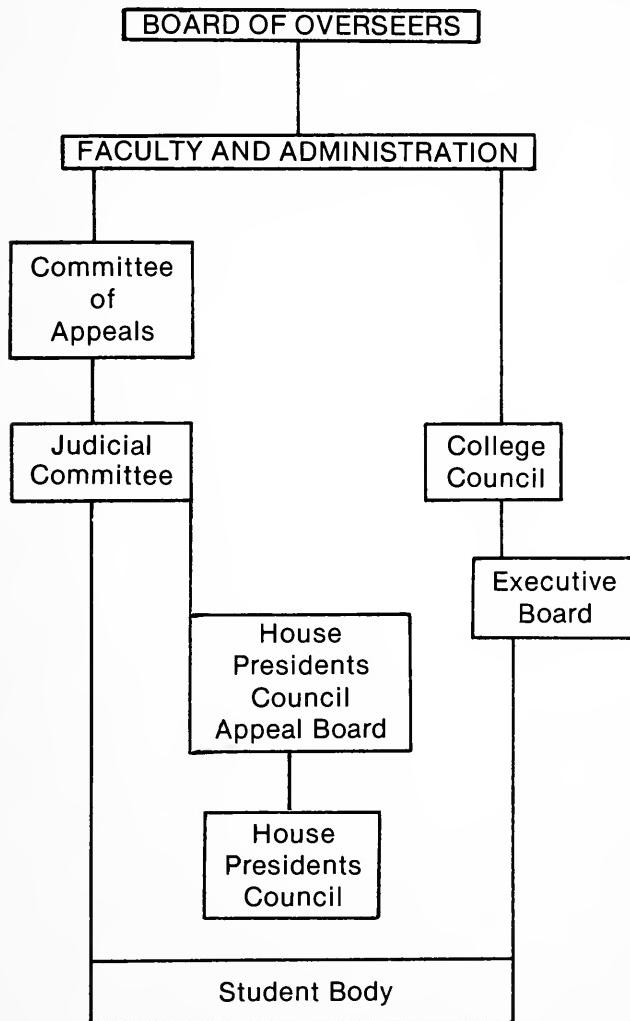

2. All nominations will be sent to the Dean. If the Dean should question the student's eligibility for extracurricular activities, she will consult with the Vice-President of the Student Government Association concerning the matter.
 3. Candidates of the different group elections will be asked to participate in an open panel discussion once the candidates' statements have been approved and posted.
 4. Student Government elections shall be conducted by the Executive Committee at the time it deems best. The Vice-President of the Student Government Association sets up the election schedule with the Executive Committee. Elections should be held before the first of April.
 5. All clubs and organizations shall have their officers elected by the time the Student Government Association finishes its general elections. A list of these officers is to be turned in to the Vice-President of the Association.
 6. Newly-elected officers, with the exception of the House and Assistant House Presidents, shall assume their duties in the beginning of April with the understanding that old officers complete already-begun projects and represent the students at the Spring Board of Overseers Meeting, though both groups of officers will be present.
 7. If a vacancy occurs in any office, an open election will be held to fill the office. If an officer wins the election, another election will be held to fill her office. If a student government officer runs for a vacated office and loses, she will then return to her original position.
 8. The Chairwoman of the House Presidents' Council must have been either a house or an Assistant House President.
- C. 1. Any student running unopposed will have her name placed on the ballot along with provision for a written "no vote." In this instance, a majority of "no votes" will call for another election to be held at a time set by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association after consultation with the Executive Board.
2. The winner of an election in which there are three or more candidates running must have at least a ten-percent plurality of votes. A simple majority suffices in a two-way race.
3. Ballots which are cast as abstentions are counted toward the majority vote, whereas a ballot which contains blank or uncompleted sections forfeits its right to be counted for that office.
4. The counting of ballots shall be done by a subcommittee of the Executive Board, chaired by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association and consisting of the class presidents.
- a. The counting of ballots shall be done by an appointed subcommittee of the Executive Committee, chaired by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association.
 - b. Executive Committee members and representatives of organizations the Committee are expected to do poll duty during elections except when such an officer is a candidate for office.
5. Any student who finds that she will not be on campus during voting hours on election day may obtain an absentee ballot from the Vice-President of the Student Government Association prior to the election.
6. In the event that two run-off elections have been held for an office, the Vice-President of the Association may make a motion to the Executive Committee that the third run-off be won by the highest majority vote.
7. A candidate is allowed by the Vice-President of the Association to have access to the numerical result of her own election. She may only know the number of votes cast for her candidacy, and she may not disclose this information to others.

SECTION VI—Amendments to By-Laws

By-Laws shall be amended by the same procedure as that used for amendments to the Constitution with the exception that final adoption of an amendment requires a majority vote of the College Council and of the Student Government Association.

SECTION VII—Robert's Rules of Order

Unless otherwise specified, all procedural methods adopted by the Student Government Association will be in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.

HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System, a workable system of mutual trust which has been incorporated into all aspects of life at Sweet Briar, consists of three principles of honor upon which the community operates. These principles are: the validity of one's word, the honesty of one's work, and respect for the property of others. While allowing students a greater degree of individual responsibility, the Student Government Association rules and Honor System serve to establish a cohesive sense of community living. When a student assumes this responsibility, it is believed that she will recognize the rights of others and maintain consideration for these rights. This system operates for the benefit of the whole and the individual only when each individual accepts her responsibility to the whole. IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE.

The Honor System is based on the fundamental belief that harmony in community living is best achieved when it has as its basis honor and mutual trust. The Honor System at Sweet Briar College is constructed so as to uphold these three principles which we believe to be the core of individual and community honor:

1. Integrity of one's word.
2. Respect for the property of others.
3. Honesty in academic work (including preparation of classroom work, papers, laboratory work and notebooks, tests and examinations).

Each student is required, under pledge, to adopt these standards and to uphold them during the duration of her career at Sweet Briar.

After passing the Student Government Association test at the beginning of her first year at Sweet Briar, every student is expected to sign the honor pledge, without reservation, indicating that she will adhere to the principles of the Association as long as she is a member thereof.

EACH TIME A SWEET BRIAR STUDENT SIGNS HER NAME TO ANYTHING, SHE ACKNOWLEDGES HER PROMISE TO UPHOLD THE HONOR PLEDGE.

I. Sweet Briar Honor Pledge

I PLEDGE THAT I WILL GUARANTEE THE VALIDITY OF MY WORD, MAINTAIN ABSOLUTE HONESTY IN MY WORK, AND RESPECT THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS. REALIZING THAT THESE STANDARDS ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF LIFE AT SWEET BRIAR, I HEREBY ASSUME MY OBLIGATION TO UPHOLD THEM. I WILL REPORT MYSELF AND ASK OTHERS TO REPORT THEMSELVES FOR ANY INFRACTION OF THIS PLEDGE.

In order to avoid external controls as much as possible, we depend upon certain means of self-enforced discipline:

1. The student must report herself for any infraction of the Sweet Briar Honor System. If there is cause to think that specific infractions are occurring, judicial representatives, in accordance with judicial procedures, have the power to ascertain whether or not this is true.

2. The student is first of all responsible for her own behavior. If she has reasonable knowledge of a breach of the pledge, she is honor-bound, by her signature, to ask the offender to report herself. If the offender fails to report herself, it is within another student's power to report to the proper Student Government Association officer. Signing the pledge does not commit a student to report an offender, but it does commit her to ask the offender to report herself.

3: Students are reminded that, once a Judicial case has been decided, there is to be no further discussion by those directly or indirectly involved.

Any infraction of the Sweet Briar Rules and Regulations which involves lying, cheating, or stealing is considered a breach of honor.

An honor regulation is one which the student has pledged herself to uphold. The student is honor-bound to report herself and to ask other students to report themselves for infractions of the honor regulations. Such infractions will be considered honor offences and as such will be punished with severity.

Students should realize that every other student has the same obligations to the community in upholding the Honor System. Personal feelings and / or relationships should have no bearing upon fulfilling this responsibility. In maintaining the spirit of an honorable community and of a just judicial system, students must respect the decisions made by the Judicial Committee, a body elected by the students. Breaking this spirit may serve to alienate the individual or create disturbance or uneasiness among the community.

II. Academic Honesty

THE VALIDITY OF THE SWEET BRIAR DEGREE DEPENDS UPON THE INTEGRITY OF THE WORK WHICH IT REPRESENTS. Therefore, principles of academic honesty are an essential part of the Sweet Briar Honor System. In accordance with these principles the following regulations have been established:

A. Examinations and tests

1. All tests and examinations are given under the Honor System. The student's signature signifies that the information given on a test or paper is her own. It is regarded as a guarantee of honest work. (As a reminder to all students, each is required to sign a printed pledge on every examination that she takes. In addition, on every paper and test, each student is required to write "I PLEDGE" in addition to signing her name.)
2. Only those materials needed for the examination may be brought into the examination room. For their own protection students are advised not to bring notebooks into classrooms where tests and examinations are to be held.

B. Papers and plagiarism

1. The presentation of the words or ideas of another as one's own work is plagiarism. The wording used by others in expressing even commonly known facts is private property, and to include it in a paper as though it were one's own, is dishonest. Ideas and facts not generally known and not commonly accepted still bear the personal impress of the men who formulated or discovered them, and it is unfair for the student to present such facts and theories as though they were her own, even if she changes the phrasing their originator used to express them. The student may use another person's work only if due credit is given.
 - a. Credit is given for the words of another by enclosing them in quotation marks or by indenting and single-spacing them.
 - b. Credit is given for the fact or idea of another, or the paraphrase or summary of another's work, by a footnote specifying the source. Acknowledgement must be made even though the student expresses the ideas and facts in words different from the source.
 - c. A footnote must be used to show exact source. A quoted passage may range from a single word, to a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or series of paragraphs.
 - d. Every quotation must be exact. If words or phrases within a quotation are omitted for the sake of brevity, three dots should be used to indicate the omitted portion.
 - e. If such words as pronouns or proper names in a quotation are not clear, an identifying or explanatory word may be inserted by the student. This editorial material must be enclosed in square brackets.
2. Examples of the dishonest use of material follows:
 - a. This is a paragraph from The Rise Of American Civilization by Charles A. and Mary Beard:

When the first Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia, it was found that many of the ablest men in America had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some were bold: Gladson of South Carolina was for an immediate attack on General Gage in Boston. Others were cautious: Dickinson of Pennsylvania thought that a respectful petition to the king would restore harmony; Washington, like Cromwell before him, apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

The following is not an exact copy of the original, but it contains some phraseology which was formulated by the Beards and which therefore belongs to them. To hand in as an original paper one containing this paragraph without giving credit to the Beards would be dishonest.

Among the members of the first Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia in 1774, were some of the most capable men in America. They had been spent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some of the delegates, like Gladson of South Carolina, favored bold, decisive action. Others, like Dickinson of Pennsylvania, were more cautious, believing that a respectful appeal to the king would lead to a solution of their problems. Washington apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

In the following paragraph, none of the wording employed by the Beards remains, but the whole framework of the paragraph, the ideas, and their arrangement, has been retained. The inclusion of this paragraph in a paper as if it were original work would be dishonest.

Many of the wisest men in the colonies were among the delegates of the first Continental Congress. There was a great difference of opinion among these men about what ought to be done concerning the grievances of the colonies. There were those who favored prompt decisive action. Gladson of South Carolina, for instance, advocated attacking the British troops in Boston at once. There were others who believed that a deferential appeal to the king would bring about a redressing of their wrongs. Washington seemed to be content with a policy of watchful waiting for what fate had in store. No wonder that John Adams declared the Congress was part Whig, part Tory, and part mongrel.

The sum of these principles, however, is not that it is impossible to utilize the work of the Beards. The material in this paragraph may be used in several ways. (In the first place, it may be quoted entirely or in part, a footnote being used to refer to the source of the quotation. In the second place, all or part of the paragraph may be used as an indirect quotation.) In indirect quotation the writer does not reproduce exactly the words of his source but presents the ideas in his own words, at the same time acknowledging his indebtedness. Paragraph 3 might be used for instance, after some such introduction as this: "According to Charles A. and Mary R. Beard in The Rise of American Civilization, many of the wisest men in the colonies were. . .etc." Finally, the facts in the paragraph or some of them might be used without borrowing either the phraseology or the organization employed by the Beards, credit being duly given them in a footnote.

- b. The following is quoted in its entirety from Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide by James Lester:¹

Original Material

Wuthering Heights is the most remarkable novel in English. It is perfect, and perfect in the rarest way: it is the complete bodying forth of an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life. That is to say, the content is strange enough, indeed baffling enough, while the artistic expression of it is flawless.

Student Version A

The most remarkable novel in English is Wuthering Heights. It brings forth an individual apprehension of the nature of man and life; therefore it is perfect in the rarest way. The artistic expression is flawless, but the content is strange, indeed baffling.

This piece of writing is plagiarism in its most deplorable form. The student has simply reversed the order of each sentence, retaining the essential phrasing. He provides no documentation whatever, which implies to the reader that these sentences are entirely his original creation.

Student Version B

Wuthering Heights is a great English novel. It is perfect in the rarest way: it provides an individual apprehension of man's nature. The artistic expression is flawless, although the content is strange and baffling.¹

¹Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p. 223.

¹James Lester, Writing Research Papers: A Complete Guide (Glenview, Illinois, 1967), p. 48-49.

This student's version is also plagiarism, even though he carefully documents the citation. He has obviously copied almost directly from his source, changing only a few words and phrases. His method is neither summary nor paraphrase. This error may be avoided by direct quotation or, preferably, by scholarly paraphrase that may include some direct quotation of any strikingly significant or well-worded ideas.

Student Version C

Walter Allen insists that the "artistic expression" of Wuthering Heights is flawless.¹ Allen admits that the content is strange and even baffling, but he argues that the novel is perfect because it accurately presents "an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life."²

¹Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p. 223.

This version represent a satisfactory handling of the source material. The authority being cited is identified and acknowledged at the outset, the substance of his comment is well expressed in the student's own language, and a key idea in the original, one strikingly worded, is directly quoted, so as to give full credit where the credit is due. The student has been wholly honest to his source, and he has made effective use of the authority for his own purposes.

ACADEMIC RULINGS

All students are expected to be familiar with the academic regulations and procedures in this section, which consists of excerpts from the Faculty Rulings. Other Faculty Rulings will be found in the catalog of the College. A student who does not understand any Ruling should consult the Dean. Ignorance of the regulations will not be an acceptable excuse for failure to comply with them.

A. Registration,
Changes of Program, Schedules

1. a. Preliminary registration of students in courses takes place in the Spring Term at a time designated by the Registrar.
b. Final registration for the Fall, Winter and Spring Terms takes place on the dates specified in the college calendar. Failure to register on the day and time designated will result in a late registration fee as follows: $25.00 up to five days late; $25.00 plus an additional $5.00 for every week late after that.
c. The registration of all students must be completed on the dates specified and rooms will not be held for students who do not register unless an acceptable excuse has been presented to the Dean before the official registration date.

A student who drops a course after the fifteenth class day of the Fall or Spring Terms (in the case of a freshman in her first term, the twentieth day) or the fifth class day of the Winter Term automatically incurs an F in the course. Exceptions may be made by the Dean at her discretion or on the recommendation of the College Physician. Exceptions shall be reported to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.
c. A change of program is not valid until the completed form is presented to the Registrar by the student. The option of "potential credit" must be chosen within the add period.

B. Courses of Instruction,
Hours and Credits,
Requirements for Graduation and Class Standing

1. a. The announcement of courses to be offered shall each year be presented by each department to the Committee on Instruction for its consideration and recommendation to the Faculty which must approve all changes in course offerings.

c. With the permission of the instructor a student may register for a course on a "potential credit" basis, provided she is registered for at least 4 courses for credit. The instructor will specify the requirements of the course and the student must meet these requirements as scheduled if she wishes credit. Not later than one week before the end of the classes in the term, the student must notify the instructor and the Registrar's office if she does not wish credit for the course, in which case her course registration will be cancelled.
d. A student may not carry less than 3 units of academic work. The Dean is empowered to grant exceptions to this ruling. If the reason is one of health, the recommendation of the College Physician is required.

3. a. The credit ratio is the ratio of the total number of quality points to the total number of course units taken, excluding physical education grades which are not counted in computing the credit ratio.
 - b. The credit ratio is computed as follows: for each unit of A, 4.000 quality points; B, 3.000; C, 2.000; D, 1.000; F, 0.000. For every unit of plus add 0.300; for every unit of minus, subtract 0.300.
 - c. The grades for courses completed at another institution, with the exception of the colleges of the Tri College Consortium and the Seven College Exchange, are not computed in the credit ratio.
 - d. The grade on the comprehensive requirement will not be computed in the credit ratio or major rating.
 4. a. In order to be eligible for the Sweet Briar degree, a student must present 38 units, in addition to the required work in physical education, and must have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.00 on the courses taken at Sweet Briar. She must satisfy the other requirements for the degree as specified in the catalog. One unit must be carried in three winter terms.
 - b. A minimum of two years of residence, one of which must be the final year, is required for the degree and not less than 19 units of credit presented for the degree must have been earned at Sweet Briar.
 - c. A student who spends the junior year or the Fall Term of the junior year in a study program away from Sweet Briar College must spend the Fall and Spring Terms of the senior year at Sweet Briar.
 - d. Requests to accelerate the degree course must be made to the Dean for referral to the Executive Committee of the Faculty. Normally a request will not be approved unless the student's cumulative credit ratio is at least 2.700 at the end of the fifth term (not counting winter terms) at Sweet Briar.
 - e. Every candidate for the degree must complete the comprehensive requirement in her major field.
 - f. A student may declare, complete and have recorded a double major by fulfilling the requirements of two departments.

 - h. The diploma must be made out in the full legal name of the student at the time the degree is conferred.
 - i. A student who after 12 terms of work fails to meet the general credit ratio or the credit ratio in her major required for graduation may be permitted to return to college for one Fall or Spring Term in the year following. She must carry not less than 3 units or work for credit and must have a credit ratio of 2.000 for her entire college course and a credit ratio in her major of 2.000 in order to obtain the degree.

 - b. A student who, having been on probation for two consecutive terms, not including the Winter Term, fails to achieve a cumulative credit ratio of 2.000, may be declared ineligible

- to continue in the college. Exceptions to this rule may be made on the recommendation of the Dean by the Committee on Student Eligibility.
7. a. By agreement among the three colleges, a student at Sweet Briar College may take a course at Lynchburg College or Randolph-Macon Woman's College, provided the course is not currently available at Sweet Briar College. With the approval of the appropriate department at Sweet Briar, the course may be counted toward the Sweet Briar degree and the grade will be counted in the computation of the cumulative credit ratio.
- b. Application for admission should be made to the Dean. No tuition will be charged in addition to that already paid to Sweet Briar College, but the student must pay any extra fees or charges and must make her own arrangements for transportation.

b. The student's signature to any written work is regarded as a pledge of honest work.

c. A copy of each course examination must be filed in the Registrar's Office.
 - d. Course examinations are normally of two hours duration and must be terminated promptly. In some cases an instructor may wish to give an examination of longer duration.
 - e. All course work must be completed
- by the last day of classes in each term.
3. a. Examinations and tests taken in the Infirmary are conducted under the honor system.
b. If a student is absent from an examination for reasons other than health, or without a satisfactory excuse, she will receive a grade of F for the test.
 4. a. Every department shall require of its majors a demonstration of competence and comprehension in the major field which shall be known as the comprehensive requirement. The work to be done to satisfy this requirement shall be determined in consultation with the junior and senior majors and in light of current faculty policy on this requirement. This consultation shall be held early in each academic year, and the format and procedures decided upon by the department shall be reported to the Dean.
b. All work in fulfillment of the comprehensive requirement shall be completed not later than three weeks before the end of classes in the spring term of the senior year.
c. The grade for the comprehensive requirement shall be recorded as "With Distinction," "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory."

e. If the work done in fulfillment of the comprehensive requirement is found to be unsatisfactory, the student may submit such additional work as shall be determined by the department in consultation with the Dean. In no case shall a student be granted more than one year beyond the date when she would otherwise have graduated to satisfy this requirement.
 5. a. Grades are to be assigned with the following meaning: A, indicates excellent work; B, good; C, satisfactory; D, poor but passing; E, condition; F, failure.
b. i. In the case of year courses the numbers of which are connected by a hyphen, a grade

- shall be given at the end of the Fall Term but the grade given at the end of the Spring Term shall be the final grade for the year.
- ii. In year courses the numbers of which are separated by a diagonal line, the grade for each term is separately recorded but the Spring Term must be completed if credit is to be allowed for the Fall Term.
 - iii. In year courses the numbers of which are separated by a comma, the grade for each term is separately recorded and graded, but the Fall Term is a prerequisite for the Spring Term unless otherwise indicated in the course description in the catalog.
- c. i. If the Fall term grade in a year course is an F, the instructor shall decide whether the work of the Fall Term must be repeated. If the final grade is an F, the instructor shall decide whether both terms or only the Spring term must be repeated before a final grade may be given for the course.
- ii. If a grade of F is obtained at the end of the Fall Term of a year course and the course is then dropped, the grade shall be counted for one term only. If the course is continued into the Spring Term and dropped after the fifteenth day of the term, a grade of F will be recorded for the year.
6. a. In case the grade at the end of any term is F, E (Condition) or Incomplete, the instructor shall complete a report thereof in duplicate on a form available in the Dean's Office. This report is to be given to the Dean at the time the grades are reported to the Registrar.

- c. A grade of E (Condition) indicates that, in the judgment of the instructor, the student should be given an opportunity to present further evidence of her proficiency before receiving a final grade for the course because (a) after doing satisfactory work she has failed a final long paper or examination; or (b) her work, while not clearly failure, is not passing quality, yet a repetition of the course is not desirable.
- d. An E (Condition) on the Fall Term's work in a year course may be removed by passing a re-examination to be taken within the first two weeks of the Winter Term. At the discretion of the instructor, a student may be allowed to continue in the course without a re-examination; and if the final grade is C or above, the Condition shall be regarded as removed.
- e. An E (Condition) on a one term course or at the end of a year course may be removed by repeating the course or by passing a re-examination within the first two weeks of the following term. The re-examination must be taken at Sweet Briar. If the student fails to remove the Condition by either method, a grade of F shall be recorded.
- f. Incomplete indicates that a substantial piece of required work has not been completed but under circumstances which merit an extension of time.
- g. A grade of I (Incomplete) may be removed only by the completion of the incomplete work within four weeks after the last class day of the term in which the grade of Incomplete was given. Under exceptional circumstances an extension of time may be granted by the instructor on consultation with the Dean. If the Incomplete is not removed within the specified time, the grade of F for the course shall be recorded.
- h. It is the responsibility of a student who receives notice of Condition or Incomplete in a course to communicate with the instructor promptly and make arrangements for the removal thereof or indicate that she proposes to repeat the course or accept a grade of F.

7. a. A student with a cumulative credit ratio of at least 2.000 may, with the approval of her adviser, take one course each term on a Pass/Fail basis. A student in her first term at Sweet Briar is not eligible for this option.
- b. When a student chooses a Pass/Fail option she shall be responsible for meeting all academic obligations of the course, including tests, papers and examinations, and shall be graded on the same basis as the other students in the course. If her final grade is C- or better, she may receive credit toward the degree but the course shall not be counted in the computation of her cumulative credit ratio. The grade of P shall appear on her record. If her final grade is less than C-, she shall not receive credit for the course and the grade of F shall appear on her record but shall not be counted in the computation of her cumulative credit ratio.
- c. A student must choose the course that is to be taken on a Pass/Fail basis not later than the last day for adding courses in each term.
- d. An instructor or department may exclude a course from Pass/Fail. Such courses will be so indicated in the catalog.

When the terms of an assignment seem unreasonable, a student, having consulted the instructor first, may then consult the department chairman or the Dean.
- c. While an earlier date for the completion of term papers or reports may be set by the instructor, the latest date permitted is one week before the end of classes in the Fall and Spring Terms. All work for the Winter Term must be completed by the last day of the term.
2. a. A student is expected to attend all classes and keep all other academic engagements. The responsibility for attendance rests with the student. The instructor shall give the Dean by the 15th of each month the name of any students whose absences, in the instructor's judgment, have been excessive during the preceding month.

- c. With the permission of the instructor, a student may change from one section to another in order to make up work. She may not do so in order to remove records of absence or to leave college early before a vacation or recess, or to return late therefrom.

- d. An excuse for a late return to college after a vacation or recess must be presented to the Dean of Student Affairs before the hour set for return to the college. Students traveling by public transportation without confirmed reservations will not be excused for lateness unless the delay is caused by inclement weather or mechanical failure.

G. The Honor System

- 1. If an instructor observes a possible breach of the Honor System he/she will promptly confer with the student involved. If after conferring with the student, the instructor believes that a breach has occurred, he / she shall urge the student to report herself to the Judiciary Chairwoman of the Student Government Association. The student shall advise the instructor when she has done so. If the student fails to do so promptly, the instructor shall report the case himself / herself to the Judiciary Chairwoman.
- 2. When consulted by a student concerning suspicious work which she has observed, the instructor should advise the student to discuss the case with the Judiciary Chairwoman of the Student Government Association. I. Withdrawal

A student who wishes to withdraw from college during the academic year must present to the Dean the written approval of her parents or guardian, stating the reasons for withdrawal. She must clear all financial obligations before honorable dismissal can be granted.

J. Readmission

Readmission after withdrawal from Sweet Briar is not automatic. Application for readmission should be made to the Dean.

LIBRARY

A. Library Rules

1. The borrower who signs the book card is responsible for the prompt and safe return of all books charged to her name. Any book not properly signed out, or not returned promptly, is in violation of the Honor Code and the student is subject to severe discipline by the Judicial Committee of the Student Government Association. This applies to the Main Library, Art Library and Science Library.
2. The borrowing period for stack books is three weeks. One renewal is permitted if there are no other requests for the book. Periodicals and reference books do not circulate. Reserve books, which are located behind the Circulation Desk, go out for three hours and most reserves may be charged out for overnight use.
3. The fine for overdue books is 5c a day for each book for a maximum of $5.00 for each volume. Reserve books accumulate charges of 25c for the first hour, 10c an hour after this for a maximum of $5.00. Overnight reserves are due before 9:30 a.m. the next day. The borrower will pay the full cost of replacement for a lost book. Books which have been lost should be reported immediately; the overdue fine will be suspended from that date until the book is located. If the material is not located by the end of the session, the cost of replacement as determined by the Librarian must be paid in full by the student. If lost books are found the student's money will be refunded. Bills for overdue and lost books must be settled at the end of both the fall and spring terms or exams cannot be taken.
4. Books and periodicals should be considered as college property for general (not private) use. Many are now irreplaceable and need to be handled with care. Never underline or mark a library book and please protect them against bad weather outside the Library. Report any damage to a book to a librarian at the Circulation Desk.

5. Food or drink must not be brought into any part of the Library. Smoking is permitted in designated rooms only.

B. Library Collections and Services

The Sweet Briar Library has one of the finest academic collections in this part of Virginia. It includes over 175,000 bound volumes, some of which are rare or unique, over 4,800 microfilm holdings, and about 800 magazines and newspapers, some in foreign languages and covering all fields, from the scholarly to the currently popular. Most of these are housed in the main building of three floors of stacks, reading rooms, and study areas, but there are two departmental libraries of art-music in Babcock and science and math in Guion.

In addition, the Library has access to an even greater range of materials through inter-library loan with such collections as those of the University of Virginia and the State Library. It is a member of the Lynchburg Area Library Cooperative which allows students to use the facilities of public, special, and other academic libraries in the region. A lost book fee of $20 has been imposed by the Tri-College Cooperative.

Some of the special collections and facilities worth noting are:

1. Reading-Reference Room

This is the main service area of the Library where you will find the public catalog; about 1,800 reference works including encyclopedias, periodical indexes, directories, and study guides; study tables and comfortable lounge chairs and sofas. More bibliographies are in the staff work area. All of these are to be used only in this room. Please do not take them to other areas of the library.

2. Circulation Desk

Books are checked out and returned here, questions are answered, and reserve books are kept behind the Desk. New books, faculty publications, book bargains for sale, notices of goings-ons, and occasional exhibits are displayed in the lobby near the Desk.

3. Book Stacks

Most of the collection is housed on three levels in the Dana and two more in the old building under the Reference Room. Open and private study carrels, as well as lounge and smoking areas are also in this area. The Dewey Decimal Classification system begins on the lowest level and concludes on the top level. Charts showing the location of the Dewey classes are provided at the public catalog and in the stacks.

4. East Wing

A separate entrance on the Benedict side of the Library contains two study-seminar rooms, one on the second floor, and also on that floor, there are a handsome meeting room and a balcony with tables, carrels, and lounge chairs to which students have access after the main Library is closed. The Browsing Room on the main floor contains current reading in the form of new novels, mysteries, science fiction, paperbacks, newspapers, and popular magazines. There is also an audio console equipped to play discs and tapes.

5. Rare Book Room

Situated at the head of a spiral marble staircase leading to the second floor is a locked room containing handsome examples of bookmaking, from incunabula to books on the graphic arts and music. Three collections are particularly outstanding: George Meredith, W. H. Auden, and Virginia Woolf. The key is available on request at the Circulation Desk.

6. Periodicals

Current magazines of general interest, along with national and local newspapers, may be found in the Browsing room. Recent issues of the popular weeklies such as Time and Newsweek are on reserve at the Circulation Desk. A special reading and study area, adjacent to the Reference Room, displays other current journals on slanting wooden shelves, under which may be found back issues. The bound volumes of older issues are located on the first level of the stacks, arranged by the Dewey Classification number. For the periodical you want, look for this number in the serials catalog, which lists periodical titles alphabetically and is available near the main book catalog. The Library Staff will be glad to assist you in using both catalogs.

Periodicals do not circulate and should be consulted within the Reference Room. Increasingly, the Library is acquiring magazines on microfilm and has recently established a special room with microprint readers and the indexes to locate articles you want. This room is in the East Wing near the entrances to the Browsing and Reading Rooms in the former Honors Room. As you will probably need help using these materials, the Library Staff should be consulted if you have any problems.

7. Education Library

On the ground level below the East Wing is the Kellogg Library which has a small collection of children's literature and reference materials, of interest to those in teacher education as well as to neighborhood youngsters. Teaching manuals and current material on education are in Kellogg; historical and general books are in the stacks.

8. Staff Area

A working area for staff only is on the main floor and contains the Librarian's office as well as a bibliography section; another staff area; "off-limits" to students, is on the ground level where custodial materials and gift books are kept.

9. Art-Music Libraries

Located in Babcock, these two collections totaling about 15,000 volumes have reference and reserve books, some journals, and study tables. Students may take out music books; art books do not circulate.

10. Science Library

In Guion, about 16,500 books and periodicals cover the general fields of science and mathematics.

11. Photocopying

A multi-copy, key-operated machine is available at the Circulation Desk where attendants will help you to operate it and collect the total cost of your copies. Copies are ten cents per page. Please bring cash. The new copyright law (P.L. 94-553) governs the making of photocopies. Under certain conditions specified in the law, a copy may be made for "private study, scholarship or research," but for no other purpose.

The entire Library Staff is prepared to help students find the material they need for writing papers, preparing for examinations and tests, and for the pure pleasure of recreational reading.

Small portable electric refrigerators not exceeding 4.5 cubic feet in storage volume, 80 pounds in total gross weight, which require less than 240 watts of electricity in normal operation will be permitted in dormitory rooms provided the room resident assumes full and complete responsibility for acquiring, moving, maintaining, summer storage away from the College and / or final removal of same. The privilege of having large rugs was given with the above understanding and is subject to removal if abused.

13. Summer Storage

a. SWEET BRIAR ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE OR LOSS OF ARTICLES LEFT AT THE COLLEGE TO BE MOVED OR STORED. STUDENTS ARE ADVISED AGAINST LEAVING ARTICLES OF VALUE IN STORAGE.

b. Property without shipping instructions attached, left for one year in a college house by a student after her final departure from college, either through withdrawal or graduation, will be disposed of by the College. As College storage space is very limited, there will be a charge made for articles left longer than 3 months after the departure of the student.

c. To provide improved protection for students' belongings, summer storage is provided in the trunk storage building at the powerhouse complex. All such storage will be at the students' own risk. While the college will take reasonable steps to protect stored property, it specifically disclaims any liability for damage, theft, fire, water or any other cause. The student is responsible for packing and transporting all items to and from the storage building and for being sure boxes are properly and securely packed. The storage of bicycles and rugs is not to be included in this facility.

d. i. Articles must be securely packed. All items such as pillows, bed and table lamps, linens, typewriters and books must be packed in a box, tied securely, and tagged with the owner's name and new room assignment. C. Closing Hour

1. The campus Closing Hour is 12 midnight, but the only permissible way students may be admitted to the dormitories after 8:00 p.m. is through a key system. Keys are available at the beginning of the college year for a cost of: Three dollars (not refundable). These keys are made to fit only the "Key" doors of each dormitory; the key door being the front entrance doorway.

In case of loss only one duplicate will be issued, that also for a charge of three dollars. Keys may not be duplicated except by the College. Duplicating a key is an honor offense.

A dormitory key may not be borrowed or used by ANYONE other than the student to whom it is issued. When the Administration of the College deems it necessary to change dormitory locks for security reasons, each student will be charged an additional fee of three dollars for a re-issued key.

For security reasons students are under obligation to see that the "key" door is locked after them when entering or leaving the dormitories after 8:00 p.m. The exit likewise is to be through the "key" door only. No door is to be propped open or opened by a student within the building to allow a student or guest to enter after 8:00 p.m.

2. When returning to campus after the Closing Hour, students must leave their dates at the key door of the dormitory. Men are not allowed on the campus between the Closing Hour and 6:00 a.m. except to pick up or leave a date and except to participate in Visitation Privileges (see below).

D. Visiting the Dormitories

G. Resident Coordinator / Resident Counselor

The Resident Coordinator is a Student Affairs professional who is responsible for developing an atmosphere within the residence halls which stimulates personal growth, encourages individual responsibility in decision making, and provides for an acceptance of others. This person strives to reduce the impersonal aspects of campus life through programming, working with the R.A.s and House President, and individual and group problem solving.

The Resident Coordinator lives in an apartment in the residence halls.

In addition to the Resident Coordinators, there are a few members of the faculty or staff who serve as Resident Counselors in the residence halls. The Resident Counselors are available to give counsel on personal, social, or academic problems.

There will be a Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor-on-call can be reached through the Information Office at any time.

H. Resident Advisor / Student Assistants

Each residence hall is staffed by at least one student Resident Advisor who is under the guidance of the Office of Student Affairs. Her main concern is for the student as an individual.

Resident Advisors are trained and expected to listen to other students as peers, offer constructive alternatives if necessary, refer students to others who may be of more assistance, help whenever possible when emergencies arise in the residence halls, and aid in strengthening the residence life at Sweet Briar.

Each of the two peripheral houses, Boxwood and House One, are staffed by student assistants who serve as a liaison between the Office of Student Affairs and the students residing in these houses. They are trained and ready to assist students with problems or obtaining information.

It is our hope that with Resident Coordinators, Resident Counselors, Resident Advisors, Student Assistants, House Presidents and Hall Presidents to assist her, a student's adjustment to college life will be a healthy and rewarding one.

I. Keys to Student Rooms

A room key will be available for each student through her Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor during scheduled hours posted in early September. Securing the key is optional but recommended. Likewise keys to top dresser drawers and closet doors in Meta Glass are available. A deposit per key will be required. The deposit will be refunded when each key is turned in.

In case of LOSS of a key, you are asked to report the same to your Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor.

If you are MOVING from one room to another, you are to turn in to your Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor the key to your present room and are to secure a key to your new room from the Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor of your new dorm should you be changing residence halls; if you are remaining in the same dormitory your Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor will take up your old key and re-issue the new one.

At the end of the college year or at withdrawal, all keys are to be turned in to the Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor concerned.

Dresser and closet keys in Meta Glass are to be exchanged, NOT dresser drawers PLEASE.

Students residing in rooms of multiple occupancy may receive door keys only if each member of the room or suite obtains a key.

If you are LOCKED out of your room, you should contact your roommate regarding entry. If she is not on campus, you may telephone your Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor up to 10 p.m. After that hour, call a security officer at 5550.

CAUTION: A wait most likely will be necessary.

J. Fire Prevention

1. INTENTIONAL RINGING OF THE FIRE ALARM IS AN EXTREMELY SERIOUS OFFENSE AND WILL BE TREATED ACCORDINGLY. THE PENALTY IS SUSPENSION FROM THE COLLEGE AND POSSIBLE CRIMINAL ACTION.
2. To ensure unimpeded exit from the buildings, nothing may be placed on the fire escapes or ladders. A student will be fined $5.00 for using the ladders for other than a drill or fire.
3. Fire Prevention Regulations
 - a. No fire may be made in any room.
 - b. No candles may be used in the dormitory rooms. Permission to use candles in the parlors or common rooms must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs; any other question of fire prevention should be referred to the Vice President and Treasurer of the College.
 - c. Smoking is FORBIDDEN in the following places:

- i. Dormitories: in stairwells, halls, and corridors.
 - ii. Academic buildings except seminar rooms.
 - iii. Faculty and staff offices unless a faculty or staff member is present and gives permission.
 - iv. The Book Shop, Babcock Auditorium, and the two chapels.
 - v. The Library except in the two smoking lounges in the stacks and in other designated rooms.
4. The campus fire department assists in the avoidance of possible accidents. Fire drills are held during the night or day as announced or unannounced fire drills or fire escape drills. They are designed to promote familiarity with exits and to insure proper training in case of emergency. The assistant house presidents will assist the house president in clearing the floor. A faculty fire team also assists and takes charge of the students once they have left the building.

Students are reminded that they are liable for any damage to property or for injury to others resulting from their negligence. Accordingly, students are cautioned to be careful when lighting, smoking, and putting out cigarettes. Regulation ashtrays and metal waste cans may be purchased at the Book Shop.

SOCIAL REGULATIONS

A. Statement of Compliance

Sweet Briar College provides notice of intent to comply with the regulations effectuating Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 as amended by Public Law 93-568. We intend to adhere to the letter and spirit of the law through a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of sex in all College operations. This policy applies in particular to our education program, to employees therein and to admissions thereto save where excepted under subpart C 86.15(a). In addition, Sweet Briar College adheres to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin with respect to its educational program and activities, employees, financial aid awards and admission.

B. Statement on Discipline

Any student accepting a place at Sweet Briar should know that the College will not tolerate illegal acts or extremes of social behavior which ignore the rights of others or are injurious to the individual, the community, or the College itself.

In any extreme or clearly dangerous situation the judgment of the President suffices to enforce a decision of temporary suspension and removal from the College until a hearing before the appropriate committee can be arranged. This procedure will be accomplished as quickly as possible.

Any student unwilling to acknowledge such authority on the part of the College is advised to withdraw.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time, following established procedures that protect individual rights, any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as unacceptable in a community of scholars and students.

C. Drinking Regulations

Consumption of alcoholic beverages at Sweet Briar College, either by students or their guests, shall be controlled by the laws of Virginia and / or Amherst County. In addition, college regulations prohibit consumption of alcoholic beverages in all academic or public areas of the college, by either students or their guests, with the exception of the Chef's Kitchen, within the Boat House, the Picnic Grounds, and other areas officially designated by the Office of Student Affairs. In the Wailes Center purchase or consumption is limited to beer for those 18 years and older, or wine for those 21 and older: Honor Code principles apply.

The above-mentioned laws make illegal the following:

1. The sale of alcoholic beverages to persons under 21 years of age (beer may be sold to those 18 years and older).
2. The falsification of age by persons under 21 in order to purchase alcoholic beverages.
3. The purchase of alcoholic beverages for another person when there is reason to believe that person is under 21.
4. The serving of alcoholic beverages (except beer to those 18 years and over) to any person under 21 whether in a private home, club, party, or other place.
5. Students are further reminded of State regulations which make unlawful the transporting of alcoholic beverages unless containerized in paper bags or cartons which render the identification of the contents unrecognizable. College regulations comply with state law specifically to include the carrying of alcoholic beverages across the campus to those areas where their consumption is authorized.

The college reminds all students that the courts of the state have held that any person who serves alcoholic beverages to a minor or, for that matter, to a non-minor may become liable for any resulting accident or injury which occurs. Either criminal or civil liability, or both, may result in such cases if it can be demonstrated that such action was a contributing cause of the accident or injury.

It shall be the responsibility of each member of the Sweet Briar community to know and to comply with all pertinent laws and college regulations and, further, to help prevent any abuses or excesses stemming from the use of alcoholic beverages. In particular, students are reminded of their general responsibility for the safety and welfare of one another, as well as their specific responsibility to the college community for the highest standards of conduct and behavior, not only of themselves but also of their guests.

Any special permission for exceptions to the regulations above must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs. It should be noted that, in general, beer may be served, with permission, at college-approved social functions held in public areas. The beer to be served under these conditions is to be purchased by the student chairman of the party and to be served by the College Food Service. No outside help may be used.

D. Statement of Drug Policy of Sweet Briar College

1. According to Virginia State Law, it is illegal to possess or distribute a wide variety of drugs.
2. Police and College Security have the responsibility for law enforcement and may search a student's room if they have evidence that the law is being broken. As a protection for the rights of students, the College has stated, however, that it will not condone such a search unless a proper legal warrant has been obtained.

3. As an educational institution, Sweet Briar is concerned with informing students of the personal and community consequences of the use of drugs and thus with helping them make responsible decisions in this area. Any student who approaches an official of the College seeking help or treatment for a drug problem will be given every possible assistance. In this case, all disclosures by the student will be treated with complete confidentiality and no disciplinary action will be taken. A counselor as well as a peer counseling group are available to counsel students seeking help with drug problems. Also, literature on drugs is on reserve in the Mary Helen Cochran Library.
4. In the event that an incident of drug abuse comes to the attention of the Administration other than by self-report, the following guidelines will determine the course of action to be taken:
 - a. Any student reported to have illegal drugs (including marijuana) on campus will, at the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs, be subject to a probationary status, will be advised to seek counseling, and / or will be referred to a hearing board for possible disciplinary action, especially in the case of a repeated offense. In the latter instance the board may recommend any one of a range of penalties from the college including expulsion.
 - b. Any student found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs on campus or for use on campus will generally be reported immediately to appropriate civil authorities. In such a case, the Administration will also bring a complaint before an internal hearing board. A guilty verdict would result in a recommendation for expulsion from the College.
 - c. Any nonstudent found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs at Sweet Briar will be reported immediately to civil authorities, and, if applicable, a complaint will be filed with appropriate college authority.
5. Because of the many issues involved, each report of possible drug abuse off campus will be considered in relation to time, place, and circumstances of the instance in question. In the event of such an abuse in which Sweet Briar may be directly or indirectly involved, the Administration reserves the right to file a complaint with the appropriate authority, regardless of parallel legal proceedings.

SECURITY

This telephone number is answered at the Information Center when no one is in the Security Office, which is found on the ground floor of Manson Dormitory. SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE HEALTH SERVICE

The Sweet Briar College Health Service is dedicated to helping each student learn to assume personal responsibility for her own health and well-being and maintain a state of positive good health.

The Service is staffed by the College Physician (part time), the College Psychiatrist (part time), and four registered nurses. Consulting services in all medical specialities are available in Lynchburg, 14 miles distant from the College. The Amherst County Rescue Squad, a volunteer organization, may be called upon in emergencies and provides prompt transportation to the Emergency Room of Lynchburg General-Marshall Lodge Hospital. The College Physician holds scheduled office hours while the College is in session. In case of emergency outside of the scheduled office hours, the Nurse in charge will inform the Physician and secure instructions as to procedure.

With the exceptions noted below, service for students is provided as a part of the comprehensive college fee and is as follows:

A. Out-patient

1. The College Physician may be consulted at the Harley Student Health Center during the scheduled office hours of 8:30-9:30 a.m. Monday-Friday. Specific office hours of the physician and the nurses are listed in the Directory of Hours on page 00.
2. The College Psychiatrist sees patients by appointment on Tuesdays in the lounge of the Health Center. A student desiring a consultation should telephone the Health Center to make an appointment. The service provided consists of counselling. Intensive therapy is not provided. Consultations are normally limited to 30 minutes. The service is provided on campus by the College without charge. If the student and the Psychiatrist agree that an extended series of consultations will be helpful, arrangements may be made by mutual agreement, with the student or her family paying the usual Psychiatrist's fee.

B. In-patient

In-patient services are provided for students ill enough to need bed care. If confinement in the Health Center seems likely to exceed five days, the student or her family will be advised. The comprehensive fee for resident students covers office visits to the College Physician, consultation with the College Psychiatrist as specified above, and bed care in the Health Center up to five days without extra charge. For each additional day of care in the Health Center, a charge of $5.00 is made.

On a limited out-patient basis, the Health Service makes provision for the employees and faculty of the College. Employees and faculty may consult the College Physician during scheduled office hours only. No house calls can be made and no bed care in the Health Center provided. Since the Health Service is available only while the College is in session, every employee, faculty member, and family member is advised to have a personal physician in the local community. Treatments prescribed by a personal physician may be given at the Health Center while the College is in session. There is no charge for employees of the College. Emergency procedures for employees and their families are handled in the same manner as for students.

For legal reasons the Health Center does not dispense medication except in an extreme emergency. The physician will prescribe medications needed by a student. The prescriptions will be delivered daily at a specified time to the Information Center by a local Amherst pharmacy. Only the person for whom the drug is prescribed will be permitted to pick up the medicine. A charge will be made to the student by the pharmacy. There will be a charge to the students, faculty and employees for injections, dressings, lab work, etc.

The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist serve, in relation to both students and employees and their families, in accordance with the ethical standards of the medical profession. All information received by the College Physician and the College Psychiatrist in the discharge of their professional duties, whether from students or members of the staff or their families, is privileged and confidential and will not be divulged without the consent, given in advance, of the patient unless required by law, or if in the judgment of the College Physician or the College Psychiatrist a serious threat to the welfare of the patient or the community may arise out of the patient's medical problems.

The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist share with the department of Physical Education responsibility for the College's program of health education. There is an accredited course in health education open to all four classes under the department of Physical Education. In addition, the Health Service and the Department of Physical Education jointly undertake to provide information on the problems affecting the physical and mental health of the community. Informational materials in the form of books and pamphlets on sex, drugs, and other matters of health are available in the Infirmary, the Library and some of the residence halls.

Since the Health Service has the responsibility for the medical care of the students, it is urged that all referrals to consulting specialists be arranged through the Health Center. The Health Service assumes no responsibility when students choose to consult outside physicians independently of the Health Center.

In cases of extreme emergencies, the nurse on duty may leave the Health Center and go to the site of the emergency on campus to administer first aid and make an evaluation. A member of the staff will cover the Health Center during that time.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICE

Sweet Briar is an independent college without denominational affiliation. Nevertheless, it has always stressed the cultivation of spiritual values as essential to true education.

From its beginning Sweet Briar College has emphasized cooperation between people of faith within and beyond the Christian community. Even before the great modern ecumenical movement gained momentum, ecumenism was practiced at Sweet Briar and continues to be.

The varied religious backgrounds of both faculty members and students enrich the whole life of the campus community. However, the individual's participation in either the academic study of religion or the College worship services is entirely voluntary.

The Sweet Briar Memorial Chapel provides an invitation to worship to all who enter. Completed in 1966, the Chapel was dedicated on April 23, 1967. Its copper-roofed spire rises 125 feet above the surrounding landscape and stands as a focal point of the residential quadrangle at the east end of the campus.

Sunday services are held in the main Chapel. The College Chaplain presides and, during the academic year, guests from several religious traditions are invited to preach. Holy Communion is celebrated monthly in the Sunday service.

The small Chapel is used for many different services. The Roman Catholic Mass is celebrated there each Sunday by a priest from the Diocesan Campus Ministry, who hears confession and counsels students on Wednesday afternoons as well.

Students serve on the joint faculty-student Church and Chapel Committee which advised the Chaplain and actively supports the religious ministry on campus. This Committee is responsible for the direction and growth of the religious life of the College, arranging college worship services, and distributing the chapel offering to various charitable agencies. Under the direction of the Church and Chapel Committee the Chaplain coordinates service projects, conducts Bible Study and spiritual growth groups and provides programs which focus on the development of personal values and increased awareness of community, national and worldwide concerns.

The College Chaplain is available for counseling and assisting student groups to build religious community on campus.

The College Chaplain is the Reverend Myron B. Bloy, Jr.

Publicity Guidelines

This office issues news releases, hometown stories, and feature stories about students and is interested in learning about student activities and accomplishments.
- b. With the exception of engagement and wedding announcements, any material a student wishes to submit to any of the media should be cleared with the Director of Public Information. If occasion for publicity arises unexpectedly, a student may, if she wishes, identify herself as a Sweet Briar student but should make clear that she is speaking only for herself as an individual.
- b. In case of an automobile accident, a student should give only her name and college address to any reporter or photographer. In the interest of the owner of the car and his / her insurance coverage, it is important that information be given only to police authorities, and that should be factual. Students are advised not to sign any report of the accident or to assume any liability, except at the direction of the police.

2. On Campus

Any reporter, photographer, or distributor of questionnaires who is not a member of the Sweet Briar community must have the permission of the Office of Public Information to work on campus. The Office of Public Information must be notified in advance if someone will be working on campus so that preparations can be made and clearances approved to insure the person of cooperation from the members of the community.

Students are requested to notify the Director of Public Information if they meet any unauthorized reporters or photographers on the campus.

Fund Raising

off campus, should be cleared in advance with the Director of Development.

The stipulations regarding publicity and fund-raising are made to prevent conflicts with college-wide fund-raising programs and to promote the best interests of the college community in this area.

HONORARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. Paint and Patches / Aints and Asses

Aints and Asses, as the name should indicate, is a unique organization on campus. Its members, chosen for their wit and lack of restraint, dress in manner unorthodox and behave in manner even more so.

The Aints and Asses were originally formed to take off on Paint and Patches productions, but now, being masters of comedy, the Asses perform several original skits during the year to entertain the students. When spring arrives, one can see them out in full force, blowing their whistles to keep students from trampling the grass.

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all branches of drama and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art.

P & P also attempts to provide entertainment for the entire community and to be of assistance in any theatrical undertaking on campus.

Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by interest, achievement, and lots of hard work. The various areas of club activity include, in addition to acting and directing, scenery design, properties, lights, makeup, and costumes, providing many opportunities for membership for those interested in various branches of the theatre.

B. Q.V. / Bum Chums

"Hallelujah, I'm a Bum!" sung gaily, echoes through the halls of Sweet Briar the night of spring step singing as the Bum Chums tap their ten new members. In addition to an interest in furthering good Lynchburg-Amherst area relations with the College, the Bum Chums are chosen for their good spirit, interest, and general participation in the activities of the College.

Throughout their junior year the "notorious ten" serve as useful members of the community. As a service organization, the Bums sponsor the Bloodmobile, the Christmas Bazaar, a foster child, and numerous service projects. Not least among their projects are their famed shows, the Burn Chum Inns. Also, the Bum Chums make a fun-loving effort to harass their rival group, the secret Q.V.'s.

A girl who is chosen to be a Q.V. is not taking on a new job; she is continuing her interest and work for the class. The members of this sophomore honorary society are elected by their classmates in the spring of their freshmen year for the spirit and enthusiasm they have displayed. The Q.V.'s goal, that of spirit and unity, is an intangible and challenging one for each new group to work toward. Their purpose is to promote class spirit and their names are kept secret until Spring Step Singing of their sophomore year.

C. Tau Phi / Chung Mungs

This upperclass honorary society is composed of thirteen outstanding juniors and seniors, known for their friendliness, cheerfulness, enthusiasm and general interest in Sweet Briar. Their activities include weekly sales of goodies in the dorms and daily sponsoring of the "announcing services" in both Refectories. It is characteristic of this group to constantly seek new areas of activity which will benefit the College; they are always coming to the College with new ideas for new drives.

In the moments not occupied by such worthwhile pursuits the Chung Mungs must deal with the serious and sober-minded Tau Phi's, harassing and ruffling their intellectual demeanor. Whatever these ghostly thirteen do, they continue to remind us of the need of others and prove that giving need not be a sober affair. A familiar and integral element of Sweet Briar life is this fun-loving group who so gaily chant "Glory, glory, I'm a Chung Mung . . ."

Tau Phi is an honorary society organized for the purpose of upholding the principle of a liberal arts education—the broadening of the mind by contact with the many fields of human knowledge. The membership is composed of a limited number of upper classmen chosen for their scholarship, character, an aesthetic sensitivity, who, by their attitude and effort, stimulate a lively interest and participation in the intellectual growth of Sweet Briar College. Throughout the year the society assists the Lectures Committee to encourage attendance at lectures, plays, and concerts and to arrange hospitality for visiting speakers. Every other year Tau Phi is responsible for the organization and presentation of TEMPO, an event—or series of events—of exceptional cultural or intellectual interest.

D. Phi Beta Kappa

In 1949, the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa granted a chapter, Theta of Virginia, to Sweet Briar College. Election to membership depends not only on excellent academic record but on evidence of broad cultural interests, scholarly achievement, and promise of intellectual growth.

The number of seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa rarely exceeds 10% of the class and may never exceed 15%. A limited number of juniors may be considered for election.

E. Sweet Tones / Earphones

Sixteen girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes compose the Sweet Tones, Sweet Briar's small independent singing group which specializes in interesting arrangements of popular music. Tryouts are held each spring and the following year the group entertains for various social events on campus such as the Bum Chum Inns, Alumnae meetings, Board meetings, and for various organizations in the Lynchburg-Amherst area.

The newest group on campus is also the loudest! They are known as the Earphones.

The tone-deaf, loud-mouthed song lovers keep the campus singing (or clang-ing) when they rise to the occasion with a song. They are distinguished not only by their voices, but by their earmuffs and kazooes.

They do not try to imitate the Sweet Tones (no one could). They just want the Sweet Tones to remember that not everyone is blessed with a tear-jerking voice.

CLUBS

A. American Chemical Society

Members of the Sweet Briar Student Affiliate of the American Chemical Society are mainly natural science majors. ACS brings lectures and films to Sweet Briar in the fields of science, fosters student-faculty rapport, and participates in regional and national science meetings and conferences. Membership is open to all interested freshmen and upperclassmen.

B. De Deutsche Klub

A relatively new organization at Sweet Briar, the German Club was formed to provide interested students with the opportunity to speak German outside the classroom and to become acquainted with the history and culture of the country. The club's activities include: trips to a German restaurant, films and speakers, picnics, a monthly conversation-game hour, slides and travel lectures by students, Christmas caroling and other holiday celebrations, wine and cheese Stammtisches with students and faculty from VMI and W & L, and a traditional German dinner. There is also a German table in the Refectory each week, at which students from beginning to advanced levels hold informal conversation with the department. All interested students are encouraged to participate in the club's activities, in order to create an atmosphere of Gemutlichkeit among the German-speaking community.

C. Italian Club

The Italian Club was formed in 1969 in response to the growing interest in the heritage of modern Italy, its culture, its language, and its history. Members of the organization are eager to spread their enthusiasm and do so by sponsoring various activities such as literary discussions, theatrical productions, current lecturers and films, informal social gatherings, and an Italian table in the Refectory every week for informal conversation over lunch. All members of the Sweet Briar community are invited to join the Italian Club.

D. French Club

The French Club was formed to bring together students interested in France, its people, and its culture. Throughout the year the club sponsors several "crepe Francais," wine and cheese parties, films, and lectures, as well as "La Table Francaise," a table in the Refectory for those who wish to engage in informal French conversation during lunch. "Vive la France et vive les Francais!"

E. Interact

The purpose of Interact is to devise and implement programs and activities to foster, develop, and improve channels of communications, knowledge, cooperation, and mutual support among the students, alumnae, community, and friends of Sweet Briar College. Members conduct student panels for Alumnae Council, speak to Alumnae Clubs on Sweet Briar Day, work on alumnae telethons, sponsor the Interact Carnival, and organize the activities for Parents' Weekend.

F. Recreational Association (RECA)

Sweet Briar offers a variety of sports activities. All members of the Sweet Briar community are entitled and encouraged to use all athletic facilities and equipment, with the understanding that some may be used only under qualified supervision. Specific activities sponsored by RECA are:

1. Faculty-student and intercollegiate activities

These activities provide opportunities for those interested in athletics. They include water polo games, volleyball, badminton, and runs from W & L to SBC.

2. Outing Club

The Outing Club is the organization

under the Recreational Association which sponsors hikes, raft trips, camping and other outdoor activities both on and off campus. All SBC students may participate in club sponsored activities and are eligible to become certified outing members. Certified members participate in a special outing and first-aid program which enables them to use the Outing Cabin and other campus facilities.

The Outing Cabin, located on Paul's Mountain behind campus, is the meeting place and focal point of Outing Club activities. The cabin is a rustic structure without modern conveniences. Its use is restricted to Club members and their guests. Over night trips, cooking (e.g., bread-making), cabin skills, outdoor education, and map reading are just a few of the activities that are scheduled. (Detailed regulations are available at the Gymnasium.)

3. Riding Program

The primary goal of the Riding Program is to provide students with the opportunity to develop their equestrian skills and knowledge to their full capabilities through a sound educational program and to offer constructive competitive experiences and recreational activity.

The Riding Council lends spirit and leadership on a student level to the entire program. Some of the objectives of the Riding Council are:

- a. To help students who are not qualified to hack alone.
- b. To assist non-riders in learning about the Riding Program.
- c. To function as a part of the Recreational Association of the College.
- d. To assist in the formulation and administration of the Rules and Regulations of the Riding Program.
- e. To promote greater interest in the overall riding program for all levels.
- f. To sponsor riding competitions and riding activities.

The Riding Council Pamphlet should be consulted for complete information.

4. Skiing

Ski trips will be sponsored to nearby ski areas on weekends or whenever there is sufficient demand. Longer trips will also be organized to take place over vacations.

5. Lake and swimming pool regulations
See page 52.
Other clubs include volleyball and riflery.

G. Riflery Club

H. Spanish Club

The Spanish Club enables professors and students who are interested in the culture and language of Spain and Latin America to participate in various informal activities. Activities will include slides and lectures by students who recently studied and travelled abroad, films, Scrabble games in Spanish, holiday celebrations, a trip to Washington, D.C. for sightseeing and a Spanish meal, and a weekly discussion table in the Refectory during lunch.

I. Student Guides & Hostesses

Student Guides and Hostesses serve a vital function to the Admission Office in presenting the College to visitors and also in sharing with the Admission Office their impressions of prospective students. The prospective student's visit with the guide and / or hostess is often a determining factor in her reaction to Sweet Briar.

Student Guides show prospective students and other guests around the campus. Each guide volunteers one hour of the week during which she is available to give tours of the campus. A chairwoman, who is appointed by the Admission Office, coordinates the activities of the guides. At the end of the year, ten Guides who have been especially outstanding in giving of themselves and their time are chosen as Honor Guides. Freshmen are eligible to be Guides after the Fall Term. Anyone who is interested in being a volunteer Guide should contact the Admission Office.

Student Hostesses are headed by the Overnight Hostess Chairwoman. Hostesses entertain prospective students who wish to spend an overnight in the dormitory. Those who are interested in being a Hostess may volunteer at house meetings in the early fall. The Chairwoman is responsible for placing the prospective student with a hostess.

J. Sweet Briar Dance Theatre

Sweet Briar Dance Theatre is the performing unit of dance students who are actively involved in dance and are in dance technique, dance composition or technical theatre classes. Sweet Briar Dance Theatre provides performance, experience as well as an opportunity to work in dance production, publicity, costuming, and back stage management. The group gives dance concerts and lecture-demonstrations on and off campus performing works by dance faculty and advanced students.

K. Varsity Sports Council

The Varsity Sports Council consists of one representative of each varsity sport, and all varsity coaches. The purpose is to provide a forum in which coaches and players may discuss varsity issues and policies, to perform recruiting activities and to organize the awards banquet.

L. Volleyball Club

The Volleyball Club provides an opportunity for players of both skilled and recreational ability to enjoy formal and informal matches. The volleyball team has a promising future with several inter-collegiate matches scheduled for next year. Also, the Volleyball Club welcomes newcomers to the team.

M. WSBC

The future radio station at Sweet Briar will offer a variety of music including classical, jazz, rock, folk and bluegrass. It is our aim to provide the Sweet Briar community and surrounding communities with an exciting 10-watt non-commercial station, and help unify the student body. Our studios are located in the basement of the Chapel, and construction is underway to make ours one of the most enthusiastic college radio stations anywhere!

N. Young Democrats

A growing political group at Sweet Briar, the Young Democrats is geared towards enhancing political awareness at Sweet Briar, generally from a more liberal perspective. Interaction is also encouraged among neighboring colleges and the community. All types of political input are welcome.

O. Young Republicans

Organized to stimulate campus interest in current political affairs, the Young Republican Club at Sweet Briar is active on the local, state, and national scenes in cooperation with the College Republican Federation of Virginia. Not only does the club sponsor prominent speakers, it initiates joint activities, workshops, and mixers with neighboring undergraduate and graduate schools. Members are kept busy throughout the year campaigning, doing precinct work, and service projects. The club welcomes everyone at the monthly meetings, and encourages those generally supporting the Republican Party to join.

PUBLICATIONS

A. The Brambler

The Brambler is the college literary magazine. By publishing poetry, prose, art work, music, or any other creative endeavor of fine quality contributed by members of the four classes and occasionally by the faculty, The Brambler aims to recognize and to stimulate creativity at Sweet Briar and to bring varied and vital enjoyment to all readers. The Brambler holds an annual poetry contest, "The Christie Ann Scordas Poetry Contest," and sponsors visiting poets throughout the year.

B. The Briar Patch

The Briar Patch, the yearbook of Sweet Briar, is published each spring. The Briar Patch staff attempt to cover all aspects of college life, especially the outstanding events of that year, to provide a permanent record and reminder of the year, and to produce a creative publication.

C. The Students' Handbook

The aim of the Students' Handbook is to acquaint students with the rules, activities, and organizations of Sweet Briar and to introduce the honor system which governs every aspect of life here. The Students' Handbook is an important source of reference throughout the year. It is published annually and distributed to all students in the fall.

D. The Sweet Briar News

The Sweet Briar News, published weekly by the students is the campus newspaper. Upcoming events, reviews of events past, and issues critical to the entire Sweet Briar community are aired each week. All students are encouraged to join the staff, regardless of experience, and parents are urged to subscribe and keep up with campus events and opinions.

B. Sweet Briar Song

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, flower fair,
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
Thy beauty, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, thy columns white
Shine on they hills a beacon light
Of truth, to burn with radiance bright
Forever, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, we sing to thee.
May thy foundations ever be Strong as they hills, thy purity
That of thy rose, Sweet Briar!
